SCEG

SECURITY IN COMPLEX ENVIRONMENTS GROUP

Please complete the Application Form in order to be considered for membership of the SCEG. All applications will be treated in strictest confidence. As part of the due diligence process you may be asked to provide additional information to SCEG

- ## Membership Criteria

Full Membership

Private security companies, private maritime security companies and companies delivering services who are active in the security sector and in complex environments in both the land and the maritime domain and who demonstrably operate in a transparent and accountable manner with accredited certification against relevant international standards are eligible to join SCEG. In addition companies wishing to join SCEG must have:

- read and agree to abide by the principles and guidelines in the International Code of Conduct for Private Security Providers (ICoC)
- read the ICoC Articles of Association
- read and agree to abide by the principles and guidelines in the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
- read and where relevant to reflect the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights in their processes and operations
- auditable processes in place to demonstrate adherence to the Voluntary Codes of Conduct or other principles and Associations to which they may adhere
- a commitment to play a constructive role which adds value to the SCEG Membership and the objectives of the group.
- a commitment to provide evidence that they are delivering security or other services for clients in complex environments.
- processes in place to demonstrate that they have accredited certification or an intent to be certified against relevant standards including where appropriate ISO 18788 and ISO 28007

Associate Membership

Companies and individuals who have a professional interest in the work of SCEG and wish to be kept informed of developments and contribute on relevant issues may be eligible to join SCEG . Associate Members may include companies in the legal and insurance sector, academics and Certification Bodies. Associate Members do not have voting rights within SCEG.

- ## Subscription Rates

Please note: you will be invoiced for subscription payment once and if the application has been approved. The membership year conforms to the calendar year and part year Membership applications will be invoiced on a pro-rata basis.

Up to £5m	£1250
£5m to £50m	£2800
£50m +	£4480
Associate Membership is a flat rate of £1000 per annum

Please complete the company details and return this form to:

Katrine Gibson, ADS, Show Centre, ETPS Road, Farnborough Aerodrome, Farnborough, Hampshire, GU14 6FD, t: 020 7091 1121, e: katrine.gibson@adsgroup.org.uk

- Company Details

Membership	Full Membership ☐	Associate Membership ☐
Company Name
Company Registration • Where is your company registered • Provide company registration number
Address of Company • Provide postal address of Head Office. • Provide postal address of UK office
Company Description: • Services • Activities • Size • Governance • Directors • Employees • Geographical footprint
Global Turnover: • What is the global turnover for your company for all business activities relevant to the security sector.
UK Links • Is the company registered in the UK • How many Directors are UK citizens • How many employees are UK citizens • Do you 'employ' UK sub-contractors • Do you have a UK office

Company Website • Provide link to company website
Contact details including name and appointment for the individual responsible for processing the SCEG application. Include • Email • Telephone
Why does your company wish to join SCEG and how will your company add value to the work and objectives of SCEG and its members.	