

APPLICATION FOR SCEG MEMBERSHIP

Please complete the Application Form in full to become a member of the SCEG, a Special Interest Group of ADS. You may be asked to submit additional information if clarification is required.

1. Membership Criteria

Full Membership of the SCEG is open to all UK-based companies active in the security sector who:

- have read and agreed to abide by the principles and guidelines in the International Code of Conduct for Private Security Providers (ICoC)
- have read the ICoC Articles of Association and may wish to give effect to their commitment to the code by becoming members of the Association
- have read and agree to abide by the principles and guidelines in the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
- have the processes in place which gather the evidence to demonstrate adherence to the relevant Code of Conduct
- are able to demonstrate a relevant capability that adds value to the group Membership and the objectives of the Group
- can provide evidence that they are registered and based in the UK, and are providing in or from the UK – either directly or indirectly or potentially – a service provision in the private security sector, or a product or service, again in or from the UK, to assist such UK-based private security service providers to undertake their role (including material development, manufacturing, training, service provision or consultancy capability).
- can demonstrate, if appropriate an intent to be certified against PSC1 and or ISO 28007

Associate Membership is open to those companies and individuals who have a professional interest in the work of SCEG and wish to be kept informed of developments and contribute on relevant issues. Associate Members may include those firms who wish to network with full Members, as they may be existing or potential suppliers to these members, but are not directly involved in the types of services provided by full Members. Associate Members do not have any voting rights within SCEG. Associate Members will include companies in the legal and insurance sector, academics and Certification Bodies

2. Subscription Rates

Please note: you will be invoiced for subscription payment once the application has been approved. Part year Membership will be invoiced pro-rata.
