

David Elliott, President Olive Group, Vice President international Operations- Commercial (VPIOC) for Constellis.

David was Offered the role VPIOC By Constellis back in 2019 where he is responsible for all albeit all of Constellis' s Commercial projects outside of the US.

A few Months in the position was offered the Position as President of Olive Group, and now Oversees and Manages Olive Groups Global Portfolio.

After Serving some 18 years in the Coldstream Guards, serving on multiple Operational Tours to include Bosnia, Northern Ireland and Afghanistan, but to name a few. He Moved into the security Industry in 2008, starting as an Operator on convoy teams across Iraq. Since then David has worked for Aegis, Edinburgh International (EI) (the latter forming Part of what is now Constellis) and then Olive Group (OG) when it was bought by Constellis and OG & EI amalgamated., working he way through the ranks within the industry, which allowed him to gain the necessary knowledge and “on the Ground” experience to be able direct, teach and mentor his team. Aswell as advising his direct Management.

David is keen for SGEG to be “THE” one stop Shop in the UK and Abroad, by working as one!